Privacy Policy

Keeping client information private is a priority for our firm. To enable us to provide you with superior legal services, we need to collect certain information from you. However, we want to emphasize that we are committed to maintaining the privacy of this information in accordance with law. All individuals with access to personal information about our customers are required to follow this policy.

We are providing you this privacy notice to inform you of what personal information we collect about you and how we treat that information. We hope this privacy notice answers any questions you may have regarding our treatment of your personal information and reassures you of our dedication to keeping your personal information secure.

Information We Collect

We collect non-public personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on intake or other forms (such as your name, address, social security number, and payment instructions);
- Information you may provide during visits to our web site; and
- Information about your transactions with us.

Information We Share

We do not disclose any non-public personal information about our clients or former clients to any third parties unless previously requested or authorized.

When information is shared with companies that perform services on our behalf, we protect against the subsequent disclosure of that information with a confidentiality agreement.

In no event do we disclose your personal information to companies that will use that information to contact you about their own products or services.

Opting Out

Contacting us does put your name on an “email list,” so you may expect to receive broadcast emails as a result of our representation. However, if you DO NOT wish to receive any emails, you can just email Doug Portnoy at deptrafficticket@gmail.com and ask to have your name unsubscribed.

Our Security Procedures

We restrict access to non-public personal information about you to those persons who need such information to provide services to you. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulation to guard your non-public personal information.
